OBJECT: MISLEADING INFORMATION ABOUT TOMASETTO ACHILLE REDUCERS

We have recently been informed that false news appeared in some websites in Ukraine, reporting that our Alaska reducers would be made in India. We hereby declare that all the LPG reducers made by Tomasetto Achille Spa, including model AT09 in Alaska and Artic versions, are completely produced and assembled in Italy, in our factory located in Castegnaro, Vicenza.

Tomasetto Achille Spa has a joint venture in India since 2007, Tomasetto Achille India Pvt. Ltd.: this company is only importing in India complete made in Italy LPG reducers to serve the local market; there is no production of LPG reducers in this company.

Tomasetto Achille Spa wants also to inform its customers that, in the market, there are Indian, Turkish and Chinese companies manufacturing fake copies of the most popular reducers available in the market, among this also Tomasetto Achille reducers: for this reason, Tomasetto Achille Spa warns its customers and users to be careful and use only original Tomasetto Achille products.

Tomasetto Achille Spa is taking legal actions to stop these unfair competitors, which are selling poor quality products, only externally similar to the original ones, sometimes using Tomasetto Achille trademark; this unfair business is affecting the good reputation of Tomasetto Achille brand and could create problems for the safety of the final user.

Tomasetto Achille Spa is and will do all the necessary to safeguard its brand and will take legal actions against the responsible of this unfair practice or against anybody spreading false news or rumors with the only aim of damaging the reputation of the company and its products.

Tomasetto Achille Spa invites all its customers and users, which has information about these unfair practices, to immediately report or send information useful to protect the reputation of the brand

Tomasetto Achille Sales Department remains at your disposal for any additional information

Thanks and best regards
